REPORT OF THE NATIONAL TREASURER
MR. ENRIQUE B. LAGDAMEO

57th ANNUAL NATIONAL COUNCIL MEETING
Mt. Makiling, Los Banos, Laguna
19-22 February 2013

To our dynamic President, Hon. Jejomar C. Binay, to the distinguished officers and members of the National Executive Board, to the equally respectable officers and members of the Local Council Boards, Ladies and Gentlemen of the National Council, good morning!

Kahlil Gibran, a Lebanese-American artist, poet and writer once said: "To understand the heart and mind of a person, look not at what he has already achieved, but what he aspires to."

It is without question that the National Council has achieved so much, what we are after is the desire to achieve more: Maybe, just maybe, we should aspire for perfection. But of course, logic dictates that to achieve perfection, we must calculate the risk inherent in every endeavor.

As you may have noticed, the annual BSP financial statements are not included in the BSP's Annual Report which you are now holding. The Finance Committee with the concurrence of the National Executive Board decided to dispense with this year's reporting of the financial condition and performance of the BSP.

Don't fret. Relax and stay easy my friends.

The Commission on Audit or COA, put on hold the release of the audited version of the financial report for further review. We are all aware that this edition of our annual assembly is being held three months earlier than usual. It has been agreed that we conduct the council meeting earlier because many of our members will join the 2013 elections. Plus the fact that key government agencies such as the DepEd and the DILG, which many of you here belong to, will take a crucial role in ensuring the success of the upcoming mid-term elections.

The COA, which, as mandated by law, took over just recently the auditing task from our external auditor, the SGV and Company, and it could not release the results of the audit within a limited period of time, thus the delay.

However, rest assured that we shall furnish you with copies of the audited financial statements as soon as the COA releases the result of their audit. The COA also has informed us that the audited BSP financial statements would be published in the official website of the Commission, which is the www.coa.gov.ph.

We shall expect that there will be massive adjustments in our financial reporting once the COA releases its audit report. Let us bear in mind that the government accounting system uses a different type of chart of accounts compared to a private company which we used to practice.

I know that there maybe some questions lingering on your mind.

Let me answer some:

The Boy Scouts of the Philippines is in a transition period. We are now a certified Government Controlled Corporation as ruled by the Supreme Court. The decision of the Supreme Court under G.R. No. 177131 was promulgated on June 7, 2011 and made final and executor on March 14, 2012.

As such, we are obliged to follow certain government laws, rules and regulations that are required from a government office or corporation which include being subjected to the scrutiny of COA. Please be reminded that pursuant to Section 2 (1), Article IX-D of the Constitution of the Republic of the Philippines, the Commission on Audit shall have the power, authority and duty to examine, audit and settle all accounts pertaining to the revenue and receipts of, and expenditures or uses of funds and property, owned or held in trust by, or pertaining to, the Government, or any of its subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities including government-owned or controlled corporations with original charters;

This means that: All government bodies should undergo COA auditing. Hence, the BSP is under the COA audit jurisdiction in the manner consistent with the provisions of the BSP charter.

At present, our system of operations is adapting to the government system with the help of the Commission on Audit. Our staff from the National Office and Regional Offices will soon undergo seminars and training to familiarize them with the new system. The National Office meanwhile, has stated to comply with the requirements of the Governance Commission on Government-Owned and Controlled Corporations (GCC) which is tasked to regulate the operations of all GOCCs, including the BSP. Similarly, we are in the process of integrating our personnel system to the Civil Service Commission.

Indeed, a huge task is ahead of us, but with our concerted efforts, we shall soon be enjoying the benefits of a more organized system of operations. Have faith in Kahlil Gibran.

Any more questions about this may be discussed later in the open forum segment of this plenary session. I can request the assistance of our legal luminaries of the National Executive Board headed by our President and Senior Vice President who are lawyers by profession.

Thank you.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT'S REPORT
HON. JEJOMAR C. BINAY

57th ANNUAL NATIONAL COUNCIL MEETING
Mt. Makiling, Los Banos, Laguna
19-22 February 2013

Greetings of Peace and Prosperity to one and all!

As provided in our charter, we are pleased to present to you our humble accomplishments for the year 2012.

How far have we gone with our Vision 2013 which is the measuring year for our triennial plan. . .

2013 is indeed our time to reflect and ponder on things that have made us a strong Boy Scouts of the Philippines.

Up to what extent was our achievement from that plan as we look towards 2016. . .

Last year, the Scouting world took notice of BSP's presence in various field of Scouting endeavor. BSP Secretary General J. Rizal C. Pangilinan was appointed to the position of Secretary General of ASEAN Scouts Association for Regional Cooperation. Our very own hardworking Senior Vice President Atty. Wendel E. Avisado got elected as member of the APR Scout Committee while many more were chosen to lend their expertise in various sub-committees.

We must also be proud that one of our Scouts won the Search for APR Outstanding Boy Scouts. It is worthwhile to note that the search was patterned after our very own Ten Outstanding Boy Scouts search. After hosting several activities of international status, BSP also joined a number of global events, a proof of the vibrancy of BSP from local to international level.

We did a lot in 2012 and let me now call our Secretary General, Mr. J. Rizal C. Pangilinan, to continue my report on the Administrative and Operational aspect of the Boy Scouts of the Philippines.

Conviction Cemented in the Heart

By

HON. DEL R. DE GUZMAN

Vice President for Luzon, BSP &
Conference Vice-Chairman, 57th ANCM

(Message delivered at the Opening Ceremony of the
57th Annual National Council Meeting
Mt. Makiling Los Banos, Laguna, on 20 February 2013)

Good Morning noble men and women of the National Council.

I feel so glad that we see each other once more for days of amity and hard work.

Today, we spread kindness and support as we pass through yet another year of fruitful existence.

This is a moment in Scouting history when we shall share our feelings and thoughts to pave the way for cerebral discussion and friendly deliberation. While doing this, we shall create an environment of trust with confidence that all these shall contribute in the shaping of the destiny of our beloved Movement.

The National Council has been the BSP's strong foundation for years. Up to now, the BSP looks upon this noble chamber as a dominant force that keeps the spirit of Scouting alive. The unpledging conviction of each member of the Council to support the Movement has created deep impact in Scouting so that it sails continuously amid strong or gentle wind.

No problems arose in the BSP that we did not resolve. Everytime we meet, we make sure that problems are properly discussed and deliberated upon, to the extent of heated debates before we find a rightful solution. However, our success can be attributed to the spirit of brotherhood that resides in the heart of each individual who is here.

And so today, we shall witness another year of fruitful journey as we listen to the National President and the National Treasurer's report, prepared by the equally dedicated and workaholic men and women at the National Office. The accomplishment of each of division in the BSP is also the accomplishment of the National Council, because the National Office mirrors the National Council's conviction to give our members value for their presence in our Movement and our allies value for their support to our undertaking.

Also today, we shall witness a parade of good Samaritans when we convene the Court of Honor dedicated to the brave few who dare to choose Scouting as their home. A salute may not be enough, but to honor them with our presence and admiration may lift their spirit.

Allow me to close my message with an inspiring quote from T.F. Hodge, writer, blogger and commentator, who once declared: "You cannot build a dream on a foundation of sand. To weather the test of storms, it must be cemented in the heart with uncompromising conviction."

The Path to Happiness

By

HON. JEJOMAR C. BINAY

Vice-President, Republic of the Philippines &
President, Boy Scouts of the Philippines

(Opening Message of BSP National President Jejomar C. Binay
57th Annual National Council Meeting
Mt. Makiling Los Banos, Laguna, on 20 February 2013)

The time to be glad dwell upon us once again as we gather today for the Annual National Council Meeting. This is our 57th, therefore, the reason to rejoice is here.

Theodore Rubin, an American psychiatrist and author, once stated that: "Happiness does not come from doing easy work but from the afterglow of satisfaction that comes after the achievement of a difficult task that demanded our best."

Rubin is right, we at the Boy Scouts of the Philippines have reason to be happy because we have achieved something worthy of a toast. Our membership grew. Our activities even became more meaningful. We have more volunteers to help us carry on the task of bringing Scouting closer to the heart of every Filipino. We linked arms with various organizations to ensure continued support for the organization. For all these, we have our committed and dedicated men and women of Scouting to thank for.

For me, happiness is one that we find, not look after. Happiness is taking only after sharing. When we share happiness, we take happiness; this is the unwritten mantra of the olden days of the wise and the sage. Even the legendary Mark Twain has proclaimed that "The best way to cheer yourself up is to try to cheer somebody else up."

And so here today in our home we call Mt. Makiling, we share happiness as one of the most important events of the Boy Scouts of the Philippines – The Annual National Council Meeting has arrived. Here, we shall draw the line between good and better. We share the limelight as we all take a peek at our accomplishments and take a better look at our future.

As we herald the new day with reckoning and as we prepare to serve even better with some changes that came upon us, allow me, in behalf of the national executive board and the millions of Scouts sharing happiness, to thank you all for your continued support to Scouting Movement, your never-ending cooperation has encouraged us to do our job better.

And so ladies and gentlemen, my friends, my fellow public servants, by the power bestowed upon me by the National Executive Board and the millions more of our members.

I hereby declare the 57th Annual National Council Meeting Open.

In the Company of Great Men

By

HON. JEJOMAR C. BINAY

Vice-President, Republic of the Philippines

President, Boy Scouts of the Philippines

(Speech delivered at the awarding ceremony for winners of the Tribute to the Scoutmasters, Search for Outstanding Council Chairmen and Search for Outstanding Council Commissioners during 57th Annual National Council Meeting, Mt. Makiling Los Banos, Laguna, on 21 February 2013)

"I'm surrounded by nothing but great people. I've been blessed with that, so really, I've got no choice but to be an all-around good person."

Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen:

Surrounded by people so noble and so great, who will not strive to be good?

This is why Tim Duncan, star player of the NBA, is correct when he said that he's "got no choice but to be an all-around good person."

Goodness and greatness inspire. This is how I feel now. I feel humbled by the select Scout leaders who dwell among us today. They who have shown us the meaning of the word greatness and they who inspire us to believe in the power of the humility of service.

To many, perhaps even to their own families, our awardees are ordinary people striving to live perfectly in a not-so perfect world. But to the Scouting world, in an organization where some have greatness thrusts upon them, they are the rara avis that shines among the constellations of stars.

These people work with us voluntarily and without left-up. Without them, there could be no Scouting. This is the reason why we created awards to honor their names and to boost their commitment to serve.

The tribute to the Scoutmaster is a search that aims to honor the men and women who choose to be mentors of our Scouts, while the search for Outstanding Commissioners and Council Chairmen were born out of our desire to single out outstanding individuals who help run the Council.

These people were not chosen. It was fate that brought them to the world of Scouting.

Today, we shall add their names to the roll of the Scouting Greats. Their names shall be remembered because we shall carve them alongside the other Scouting heroes in our own history. Then only then that the honor we shall bestow upon them will make a difference.

And so today, I am proud to announce my gladness to be in the company of great men. I feel proud that I met them and came face to face with them.

I invite our awardees: our Outstanding Scoutmasters, Our Outstanding Commissioners, Our Outstanding Chairmen to please, please stand up and be recognized.

(NOTE: PLEASE ALLOW THE AWARDEES TO STAND UP BEFORE PRESENTING THEM TO THE CROWD)

So my fellow Scouts, my fellow servants, I would like to declare that we are in the company of great men.

Martin Luther King Jr. once said that: "not everybody can be famous, but everybody can be great, because greatness is determined by service."

Ladies and gentlemen, please put our hands together for the greatness these noble people possess.

Maraming salamat po.

GOD LOVES OUR AWARDEES

VICE PRESIDENT JEJOMAR C. BINAY, PRESIDENT OF THE BOY SCOUTS OF THE PHILIPPINES;
MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL EXECUTIVE BOARD;
REGIONAL SCOUT DIRECTORS AND SCHOOL DIVISION SUPERINTENDENTS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION;
REGIONAL SCOUT DIRECTORS;
SCHOOL HEADS;
SCOUT LEADERS;
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

Good Morning!

The time to rejoice comes here once more as we celebrate the men and women who chose to be different. They are different because they have an abundant faith in every Scout, in the Scouting Movement, and in what it can significantly contribute to this country. Their faith sealed their fate to deserve this award as Outstanding Scoutmasters, Council Chairmen and Regional Chairmen of the noble movement we call Scouting.

Their hearts may be filled with joy at this moment, knowing fully-well that they were carefully chosen from the many nominees all over the country. Our awardees may be called the best of the Scouting world, and this award, the best they could have for their inspiring efforts. To us in Scouting, OUR AWARDEES are the best that God has ever given us. There is no mistake that indeed, the words "service" sacrifice and leadership" really have a human face.

Our awardees, however, are but nameless and faceless people in the crowd. You will barely recognize them and would not even know that they have received special honors in a special occasion for special people like them. These people work quietly and without let up, not thinking of the rewards for their sincere labors.

Our awardees work silently: They may not even be aware that their sacrifices bear fruits beyond their imagination – that their involvement in Scouting is making a big difference in the life of others. They know little, perhaps, that when they serve in Scouting, they are making life worthy of living and making it easier for others to live their life to the fullest. Perhaps they may not know it but they are transforming every single Scout into a person who is prepared to face all the challenges in life and is able to see opportunities out of every threat, strength out of every weakness. Let me tell you a story which I found in the social networking sites. Perhaps you may have read it already in Facebook. But just the same, please listen.

This is the story of a goat stuck inside a deep well. And because there is no way to save the goat, the owner decided to just bury it. So he called on his friends to help him put sand on the well until it is full. At first, the goat cried so loudly. As they put on more sand, they didn't heard anything anymore from the goat. They assumed the goat is dead already. But lo and behold, they saw the goat got out of the well alive. What the goat did as sands were placed on him was to shrug the sand off his body and used it to step on to be able to get out of the well.

The goat in the story is like a true Scout. It showed us how we can turn adversities and challenges into something positive, how we can make use of the sands and wells in our lives to make our future better. This is the mold a true Scout is made of.

And that mold was made possible by our awardees here.

They may not be aware, too, that their contribution, big or small, is making a big dent in heaven, because our God in heaven loves those who do His will for others specially our children. For truly, and I say this with all certainty – God loves our awardees.

Ladies and gentlemen, my fellow Scouts, I am proud to be in the company of our awardees.

Mabuhay ang Scouting! Mabuhay tayong lahat!

Thank you very much and God bless!

Representative of Mr. Roman R. Tuason
President, Philusa Corporation

Vice President of the Philippines, His Excellency, Atty. Jejomar C. Binay, Secretary General of the Boy Scouts of the Philippines, Mr. J. Rizal C. Pangilinan; Officers of the Boy Scouts of the Philippines; Distinguished Guests; Scoutmasters; Scouts; Ladies and Gentlemen, Good Morning!

I am Mr. Jido Ramirez, the Medioplast Branch Specialist of Philusa Corporation. Due to a previously set and committed official engagement, our President Mr. Roman Tuason, could not join you today to witness this heart-warming event, the 2013 Tribute to the Scoutmasters and Awarding Rites.

In behalf of our organization, Philusa Corporation, we sincerely congratulate the Outstanding Scoutmasters selected for this year 2013. With your dedication and hard work to the cause of the Boy Scouts of the Philippines, you are heroically helping to shape the future of our Nation towards a more progressive state as you instill the right and upstanding discipline to our youth, particularly the Boy Scouts in our country. We are particularly elated and honored to be part of this ceremony of giving tribute to and awarding you as Outstanding Scoutmasters.

Let me just share a short story of my experience with Boy Scout when I was a kid. When my school in Don Bosco started having clubs, Boy Scout was the most famous club that every little boy in our school wants to join to. We do not even know what is in that club because we were just little children then. We have very minimal knowledge on who boy scouts are what they do. The line for registration for Boy Scouts was so long that the head of the Boy Scout Club decided that they should reject some applications of course to give way to other clubs and the mode of operation they decided was through raffle elimination. So, there we all are in a very crowded room praying that our names won't get called because if your name gets drawn then you won't be able to join the Boy Scouts. To make the long story short, I was drawn and I was not able to join the club. I was sent to some other club which I do not remember. I think it was the math club or something. Now, why am I sharing this with you? This memory is still very vivid in my head and I am asking myself "What is with this Boy Scout club that all the boys in my school are hoping to get in". Then after a few hours of thinking about me, I realized and it struck me that what the Boy Scout offers is the opportunity to conduct service. Even in our youngest years, we strive our best to try our luck in service. That is why every boy in my school was hoping to join the Boy Scouts because they want to serve.

When I graduated from High School in St. John Bosco, they taught me to be a "servant leader for God and for Country". When I graduated from college, St. John Baptist – De La Salle taught me three values "Faith, Zeal for Service, and Communion in Mission". All of them want me to serve my country and that is what Boy Scouts are all about. That is also what Medioplast is promoting in partnering with Boy Scouts in being "Laging Handa" lalo na kapag may mga sugat. Makakasiguro tayong bilis galling sa Medioplast. So, together let us continue partnering Medioplast and Boy Scouts of the Philippines in serving our country well.

Again, congratulations to the Outstanding Scoutmasters for a truly deserved award and recognition. Congratulations also to the officers of the Boy Scouts of the Philippines and to the ceremony organizers for this very successful event.

Thank you very much for the opportunity to be a part of this historical event. Mabuhay ang ating mga Outstanding Scoutmasters! Mabuhay ang Boy Scouts of the Philippines! Mabuhay si Secretary General J. Rizal Pangilinan! Mabuhay ang lahat ng Scouts! Mabuhay si President Jejomar Binay! Mabuhay ang Pilipinas!

OF TRADITION AND THE LIFE OF SCOUTS

His Excellency, the Vice President, WSB – RD, APR Mr. Abdullah Rasheed, the Secretary General, the National Executive Board, Regional Scout Directors, Council Scout Executives, Our distinguished honored friends, ladies and gentlemen.

Good morning!

Perhaps this greeting is not enough, I believe this occasion deserves more, a greeting for a Great Morning, appropriate for a great organization, a great group of leaders, trailblazing along the path of our great history.

Worry not however, I promise to make this short, just like a mini-skirt, it will be short enough to generate interest but sufficient to cover the bare essentials.

Allow me first to thank the National Executive Board for the invitation that has been extended to me. I am tasked to be a guest speaker, an honor for me, a young man who has nothing to himself except the responsibility of living honorable life, worthy of the award that was bestowed on me almost 15 years ago, that of an outstanding scout. At first I was apprehensive to accept this invitation, being in your presence will bring me back to the mind breaking and spirit shaking experience of a board of review or that of the final interview for TOBS. Nonetheless, I accepted, I am here, ready for the challenge and very much willing to live up to our motto: Laging Handa.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I am here today for one reason, TRADITION.

Just as an adlib, siguro yun din ang dahilan kung bakit yung mga magulang ko ay lumuwas ng Maynila para samahan ako papunta ng Makiling. Naging tradisyon na po ito sa aming pamilya, apat na lalaki, ako po ang panganay, lahat boy scouts. Wala pa po kaming camping dito na hindi sila pumunta. Sa totoo lang po, ang Camping lang na di nila ako nabisita ay yung 19th World Jamboree sa Chile subalit may magulang pa din po ako dun, yung atin pong Secretary General.

As I was saying, I am here because of tradition.

Tradition – is the passing of a behavior or a belief from one point in time up to an indefinite point. As time goes by, tradition evolves, it changes, but the essential value from the point such tradition existed will never perish. We may have different perspective of what Scouting is, but it will never change the essential meaning and value of what Scouting is all about.

What is this tradition you may ask? What is it that I am talking about?

Think of this, What is our heritage?

The BSP has promoted the ability of young men to do things for themselves and others, trained them in Scout craft, and taught them patriotism, courage, self-reliance. It is today one of the largest Scout organizations in the world, in terms of number of Scouts vis-à-vis the number of young people of Scouting age.

Our movement builds character and integrity. We foster volunteerism. We sustained generations of youth who are healthy and engaged. In the 75 years of Scouting in the country, and even more if we count those troops formed unofficially, just guided by Baden Powell's inspiring handbook, look at the impact it has made on our country, count our heroes, our athletes, leaders, revisit our rosters and see the countless or principled citizens that we (no, not we....but you have molded).

This is our heritage, and making it so is our continuing tradition. I believe that it is in the passing of something of value from one generation to the next is the true meaning of tradition; whether it's the spirit of mentoring or the spirit of service. This is what Scouting does. And this Ladies and gentlemen, is the tradition I refer.

You may know the Scout's tradition of "Do a Good Turn Daily." And we all know the story. In 1909, a Chicago publisher named William Boyce got lost in the London fog. A young boy helped him find his way but wouldn't take the shilling Boyce offered. He said Scouts don't take payment for "doing a good turn." Boyce, on the other hand, had never heard of Scouts, but he was so intrigued that he learned all about the British program, then came home and helped create the Boy Scouts of America – which was transplanted to our islands, from thence, Scouts have honored the memory of that day by doing "good turns."

We in the Association of Outstanding Scouts, have always remained faithful to this. Late last year, at around November, A Scoutmaster by the name of Guadalupe Jumao-as wrote a letter to the wife of my principal, the wife of my boss, seeking sponsorship of the registration of indigent Scouts from Lupang Pangako Elementary School. This is a school right at the foot of the Payatas Dumpsite in Quezon City. Unknown to her, the letter landed on the desk of an outstanding scout, and not just that, that TOBS, is the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Ten Scouting Boy Scouts of the Philippines Association, Inc.

We sought for her out, I even asked one of my staff to contact her and set-up a meeting with me. The funny thing was, we were very animated and very much spirited in discussing scouting matters, and she asked why I know so much about Scouting. That is when I told her about me and the plans of TOBSPA.

Good turns poured in from all over the world. Our different batches of members seemed to have a contest on the number of scouts they can sponsor. Right now, we have 180 Scouts who did not only receive free registration, but free paraphernalia as well.

We had some criticisms online, a Scouter even pointed out that there are others who need help, Scouts from the provinces, also from indigent areas. "WHY MANILA?". Allow me therefore to apologize to all of you, we meant no favoritism, we just wanted to help.

But who are these kids you may ask, they are the "mangangalahig", the one's who go through the mountains of garbage to seek scrap, plastics, metals and yes, even food. They are the one's who despite the dangers to their lives because of their trade, have no insurance, have no network of protection. This is the reason that compelled, that lone Scoutmaster, Mrs. Jumao-as to seek help. According to her: "Kung magiging Boy Scout po sila, matuto sila, mayroon tayong skills na maaring ituro at higit sa lahat, yung limampung piso po na yun sa registration ay maroong insurance."

Her words of concern is an echo of the voices of our various leaders from the grass roots, let us not forget them for they are soldiers, valiant teachers, mentors, inspiring new generations and changing lives. Today we stand here to honor our leaders, vanguards of our tradition. We recognize their significant contribution to the Scouting Movement, to our heritage. This day, we hail those whose commitment ensured our continuance, always in the service of God and Country. I implore all of you, let us not forget who and what we are and the traditions that have set us apart from the rest. Our organization is an institution in itself, we educate, we train and we build future generations.

Huwag po nating kalimutan ang mga katulad ni Mrs. Jumao-as, sa kanilang pagpupunyagi maraming buhay ang nabago, marami ang nagkakaroon ng bagong panimula. It is to the likes of her and those we honor here today that we owe what we are, the molded us young men, to become survivors, not just of the wild, of the jungle but of the real world as well.

Before I finally end I want to share with you a personal story. The other week when I was hanging out with a batch mate and his wife talking about children and future plans, I asked the wife: "what were your initial thoughts about me and your husband being boy scouts?" she said, I really want to poke fun at you guys for before, kasi naman diba para lang kayo mga grown up people in short pants wearing knee socks. Pero alam mo ok lang sa akin kung magiging boy scout din ang mga anak naming, because I know now that in Scouting and through Scout leaders you guys turned out just fine.

I asked "Good husbands?"

No, the best of husbands".....she said smiling, and not only that, the best brothers and friends to the women in their lives. I can't help it to be grateful to the Boy Scouts, knee socks and all." She chuckling and breaking out into a good laugh.

In behalf of those scouts who are now, great fathers, husbands, brothers and committed individuals, thank you very much to your esteemed honorees, it is my honor to stand and raise my and in a snappy salute in your honor.

Muli, magandang umaga po sa inyong lahat!

TRIBUTE TO SCOUTMASTER AWARDEE
21 February 2013, Thursday, Vargas Hall, PSC-APR
Mt. Makiling, Los, Banos, Laguna

HONORABLE JEJOMAR C. BINAY, President, Boy Scouts of the Philippines
SECRETARY GENERAL, Jose Rizal C. Pangilinan, Boy Scouts of the Philippines
Distinguished Guests from the Boy Scouts of the Philippines
National Executive Board and former members of the Boy Scouts of the Philippines National Board, Fellow Scouters from Batanes to Jolo, and friends

Good day to you all!

Quoting the words of our Ever Great Scout Master,
"Do to others whatever you would that others do to you."
were the words that caught my eyes as I was reading today's gospel,
February 21, 2013.

This message is indeed fitting for all of us here present and listening to our speaker Atty. Charles Mark B. Parcia as he encouraged us to serve the Boy Scouts of the Philippines continuously and find means and ways to be of service to whoever may need our help regardless of creed, color or race.

Indeed, 2013 is challenged with many global changes and has advanced technologically; hence, even if we are faced with challenging moments in training and other activities, we are still here all these years as servants of our Lord in the vineyard of the BSP movement.

Do you know what really kept us epitomizing the real leaders all these years? Our guide were the words of our Lord "I came to serve and not to be served."

It is also the idea of leaving behind experiences we encountered NEGATIVELY, and bringing with us only POSITIVE experience and EXPERTISE that will help us mold an individual holistically.

Lastly, we also never forget to express our gratitude to each and every one we get involved with during our activities.

And so today, we extend our sincerest gratitude to PHILUSA Corporation and MEDIPLAST for their unwavering support to the Boy Scouts of the Philippines and to the Boy Scouts of the Philippines Selection Committee for taking pains in evaluating the documents and pictures and their untiring efforts in choosing the winners.

To end this talk, I would like to quote the words of Fr. Jerry M. Orbos, SVD, "There comes a moment each day when we must simply drop what weighs on us and hand it over to God. May the Lord bless us for whatever we pray for, reward us with what we work for, grant us what we hope for, surprise us with what we have not asked for."

Thank you and Good day again!

YOU HAVE THE POWER TO INSPIRE

HON. JEJOMAR C. BINAY

Vice President, Republic of the Philippines &
President, Boy Scouts of the Philippines

(Speech delivered at the Court of Honor during 57th Annual National Council Meeting, Mt. Makiling Los Banos, Laguna, on 21 February 2013)

Good Afternoon,

I should warn you once again ladies and gentlemen of the Court: Scouting is a long journey to servitude. This is taking the path to sacrifice that leads to greatness, hence, serving is not just about willingly giving our heart or sharing our thoughts, but an expression of commitment to bring this movement to greater heights.

Scouting offers no material reward; you will not get rich in Scouting. Most of the time, people who serve in Scouting are the ones who shell out resources to be able to serve. The only consolation -- as we receive no rewards in Scouting -- is the proof that we are helping build a better nation inhabited by citizens who follow the law, who cherish peace and contribute to nation-building.

Today is another day of gladness as we convene once more to honor our brothers and sisters in Scouting, who choose the long and winding path to Scouting service. We have here a group of individuals whose unselfish acts have helped create a better world or make a difference in the life of others.

If all the Filipinos could be like our honorees today, probably, there is no stopping this nation from moving forward. Imagine all the citizens working together like this court does, willing to serve to the extent of supreme sacrifice and are thinking of nothing but to contribute to the growth of this nation, our country will no longer be called a nation of beggars or a sick man of Asia, but a hard-working nation who is proud of its race. If this happens, our sons and daughters, our parents and other relatives would no longer leave this beautiful nation to find their fate in other countries, where culture and tradition, more often than not, clash to what we believe in. Then, if all the Filipinos could only be like our honorees today, this nation will unite, because they will promote brotherhood, not hatred and heal the wounds and not inflame it for the sake of partisanship.

Ladies and gentlemen, we are living on dangerous time. Signs that this world is getting smaller everyday have arrived to remind us all that the day of reckoning is now. If we look around us, we could see never-ending string of nature and man-made tragedies. We need fresh new heroes to help guide us in this weary world that needs our cares. Our honorees here, and the future ones, could inspire us to create new heroes from among our young Scouts. They will help us find the way for this young Boy Scouts to grow up to be like them. In this way, we could create young and innocent army of red and green and yellow and blue who learn the basic of discipline through work and play and who change the world by building their own dreams from the basic Scouting principle of learning by doing. These young citizens will be our hope for the future and the key to them could be our honorees here today. HENCE, ALLOW ME LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, TO LEAD IN GIVING THEM A ROUND OF APPLAUSE.

Thank you, so to the members of this honorable court, to the Scouts first before they could be awardees, to the noble men and women of Scouting, thank you all very much for staying with us and for growing with us. With you by our side, we know that the task of Scouting for the Filipino youth is easier. You have the power to inspire.

Maraming salamat po.

REMARKS

by:

MR. ABDULLAH RASHEED

Regional Director

World Scout Bureau/Asia-Pacific Region

(Remarks of APR Regional Director Abdullah Rasheed, during the closing program of the 57th Annual National Council Meeting, Mt. Makiling Los Banos, Laguna, on 22 February 2013)

Dear brothers and sisters in Scouting,

Today I am delighted to join you in this important gathering, your 57th Annual National Council Meeting. This event is very special to me personally as this would be the last time I am addressing this Council as the Regional Director of the Asia Pacific Region. My attendance here in recent years had given me a much bigger perspective of how a large National Scout Organization like the Boy Scouts of the Philippines operate in a consistent manner and it is always a pleasure to attend these gorgeous meeting and I have never missed any except just for one in the last eleven years.

I congratulate and thank you, the leaders of scouting in the Philippines for choosing the theme "Scouting Education for Life". While we know in principle that education is the essential purpose of Scouting, it is always wise to come back and collectively affirm and to remind ourselves, again and again, that we are here for the education of young people and it is our commitment as leaders to carry them through the rest of their lives.

Even at the world level, Education remains as the core business of Scouting. Our organization has a very unique educational model, a method that served us well for over 100 years. But we cannot rely on our old and traditional practices alone, considering that the landscape and conditions that we knew twenty, thirty, fifty years ago are very different from the world that our young people know today.

The World Organization of the Scout Movement is organizing the 1st World Scout Education Congress in November this year in Hong Kong. The purpose of this congress is to re-position EDUCATION as the center of our attention. This workshop aims to raise awareness and assess the impact of the educational method of Scouting on future world and youth trends. This is important because it will point the way forward for the educational methods of Scouting. We hope to achieve this by bringing in expertise both from inside and outside of Scouting.

The organizers are expecting 200-300 participants on-site, and another 1,000 join-in participants online. This gathering will be helpful to National Youth Program Commissioners including Section Commissioners, National Training Commissioners, volunteers responsible for youth program and training, and other people that your organization feels can contribute to the event. For the time being, the three main threads are EDUCATION, LIFE and IMPACT OF SCOUTING ON EDUCATION AND LIFE.

For sure, Boy Scouts of the Philippines will not miss this opportunity. You have the capacity to share your expertise in this area, and it is also a good occasion to learn from the success of other Scout organizations and from other institutions outside of Scouting. I hope that there will be one participant from each Council and for the BSP to have the largest delegation in this important scouting Forum.

As I said earlier, this is my last address to this Annual Council Meeting, so let me take this opportunity to express my very sincere gratitude for the full cooperation that the Boy Scouts of the Philippines accorded me for the last eleven years. In those years, I had the pleasure of attending a number of events in different provinces and local councils. I personally thank the National President of BSP, Vice-President Jejomar Binay for his leadership and support, Secretary General J.R. Pangilinan for accommodating countless requests from the region, the newly elected Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Committee member Wendel E. Avisado for bringing wisdom and substance to the region, and to the members of the National Executive Board. While it is not possible to thank everyone individually, I deeply appreciate and recognize the hospitality and friendship extended to me by the many Scout officials I met and visited in different local councils around the country. Wherever I went, that true Philippine hospitality was there and I rarely felt that I am in a foreign country. I will be leaving Philippines in the first week of July and I sincerely request you to extend the same hospitality to me predecessor as you did to me.

I will continue to serve Scouting in a voluntary capacity. I am bringing with me very good memories of Boy Scouts of the Philippines as an organization and as people who have brought a lot of inspiration, not only to me but to many others, which I will cherish and share with many others for the rest of my life. I wish for better scouting for more young people across the country and your devotedness for the development of scouting grow from strength to strength. May God Bless you all!

Maraming salamat po and mabuhay Boys Scouts of the Philippines!

We shall Continue to Prevail

By

HON. JEJOMAR C. BINAY

Vice President, Republic of the Philippines

President, Boy Scouts of the Philippines

(Closing Message of BSP National President Jejomar C. Binay, 57th Annual National Council Meeting, Mt. Makiling Los Banos, Laguna, on 22 February 2013)

We came, we saw, we discussed, we shared, we asked, we explained, we created and now we will put to end the 57th Annual National Council Meeting.

But this is not the end, this is just a beginning. A second after I close this meeting, we shall open a new chapter in Scouting. By then we shall continue to prevail.

There may be big difference, there maybe some changes that will come our way, but we shall continue serving this nation by taking care of its youth.

I thank you all for coming, I thank you for sharing your thoughts, for asking question, for joining the discussion. In doing these the purpose of the Council Meeting has been served.

We shall see you next year, perhaps in another time and place or in another circumstances, but no matter the changes that will come upon us, we shall continue to be wearing the brown neckerchief and standing close to each other as we face the future together.

To the members of the council, my gratitude for your trust; to the professional Scouts, thank you for working with us and to the volunteers, thank you for being with us through the years. We shall never forget.

And so my friends, let me close the 57th Annual National Council Meeting with a declaration from American humorist and columnist Erma Bombeck who once said:

“When I stand before God at the end of my life, I would hope that I would not have a single bit of talent left, and could say, 'I used everything you gave me.'”
