In the conduct of the election, Council Scout Executives/Officers-In-Charge must ensure that the composition of their Local Council Board reflects a cross-section of the community especially the barangay, the business, and private sectors. This will prove that the Scouting Movement in the locality gets utmost support from different sectors. The undersigned shall attend the Annual Local Council Meeting.

In as much as community quarantine restrictions and stringent levels of protocols have been implemented amidst COVID-19 pandemic, the following modes in the conduct of the reorganization activity shall be observed:

- Online or Virtual Mode – the activity will be conducted via online or virtual means using programs and software applications such as Zoom, Google meet, through internet.
- Blended Mode (Online and Limited Face to Face) – the activity will be conducted through the combination of online and limited face to face method. However, strict compliance of quarantine protocols such as physical distancing, wearing of face mask for all attendees with clearance from concerned authorities is required.

As soon as the Council Officers have been elected, the Regional Scout Directors are advised to reorganize their respective Regional Scout Committee on or before the second week of April of the current year. Consequently, the Regional Scout Directors are likewise advised to submit the result of the Regional Scout Committee Election on or before April 30.

For widest dissemination, information, and strict compliance.
