NATIONAL EXECUTIVE BOARD (NEB) Report of the International Commissioner

Distinguished Members of the NEB:

Greetings!

The undersigned would like to update you on the following international affairs:

a. BSP Request to Waive the Surcharge (10%) of Late Registration Fee for the 25th World Scout Jamboree (WSJ)

The BSP, through National President Dale B. Corvera, wrote a letter to the 25th WSJ Organizing Committee requesting to waive the surcharge of late registration fees. This was also negotiated by the undersigned during the 2nd Head of Contingent's Meeting held on 03-07 August 2022 at South Korea. However, upon assessment of the 25th WSJ Organizing Committee, our request was denied due to the necessity of funds required for the preparation of the event.

To this effect, the BSP will still announce an open call for participants, with the late registration fees inclusive of the surcharge (additional USD 30.00).

b. Messengers of Peace (MoP) Field Visit

For year 2022, the project Strengthening the Better World Framework in the Philippines implemented by the BSP has been chosen for the MoP Field Visit this August 2022. Key officials from the World Scout Bureau Global Support Center and Asia Pacific Regional Support Center will be visiting the BSP to have a detailed Impact Assessment of the project in order to know the reality on the ground, see if best practices can be replicated even further, and identify challenges that must be addressed appropriately.

The duration of the visit will be three (3) days, with the following schedule:

Day 1 Session Meeting with:	Day 2 Session Meeting with:	Day 3 Session Meeting with:
